

CHALLENGER KINDNESS DAY

We rise by lifting others.

- Robert Ingersoll

At Challenger we believe that school should be a safe and happy place where individuals are positive and respectful of one another. Challenger student, parents, volunteers, and staff are expected to follow the 3Rs.

Be RESPECTUL

Be RESPONSIBLE

Be RESOURCEFUL

Be SAFE

Parents and students can read Challenger's expected behaviors on the school website, as well as find bullying information and resources from the Issaquah School District .

On June 14th help us to celebrate Challenger's expected behaviors by wearing YELLOW , a color that represents kindness and friendship . Join us by participating in activities that focus on kindness.

Choose a kindness task to do from the bulletin board.

Pick up garbage around school.

Choose kindness as a writing topic in class.

Meet a new friend at recess and play!

Read a book about being kind.

Perform a random act of kindness everyday for a month.

Make a pledge with your friends to be kind.

Catch someone being kind.

At home help a family member.

Think before you speak, is it KIND?

Read through Challenger's expected behaviors with your family.

Watch kindness videos with your family.

Talk with your family about what kindness means to you and how can you show it.
